

4" Fig. 602 Pipeline

The pipeline system transports the well effluent through each one of the measurement system components or well test package. All well test flow pipeline, assemblies and data heads have a direct impact on the personnel safety.

Pipeline 4" Fig. 602 features

15,000 PSI Pressure range.

Manufactured with materials that meet the requirements of the NACE MR0175 Standard.

Designed and manufactured to meet with ASME B31.3

Manufactured to sour service working (H₂S).

Identified with color bands to indicate pressure ranges and type of service.

Strict control in its traceability and inspection.